

16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 21, 2024

At this beautiful time of summer when we change our routines and everyday life to take advantage of this gift to enjoy the moments of family, friends and new places the readings for Sunday speak of change, proclamation and rest. The Apostles who were sent out to evangelize, which we heard last Sunday, return filled with their experiences, joys and maybe some hesitation. Jesus listens, reflects and encourages them to take some time to themselves. People surround them and follow them and Jesus says:

‘Jesus had compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.’ (Mark 6:34)

Our lives and experiences are all opportunities to witness to the eternal love of God; where ever we find ourselves. We are inspired by the Spirit to share our hope and confidence, bringing to our sisters and brothers the message and joy of the Gospel.

“Preach the truth as if we had a million voices, for it is silence that kills the world.”

St. Catherine of Siena

Blessings of peace! Fr. Don

We pray to be channels of God’s peace to the world
