WEE ONES BOTTLE CAMPAIGN - The Sussex Pregnancy and New Parents Care Centre (SPCC) annual fundraising campaign draws to a close, this weekend – Father's Day. Specially marked bottles and envelopes are available, if you wish to make a donation. Please remember to drop off your donations as soon as possible. If making a donation by cheque, please make cheque payable to: Sussex Pregnancy Care Centre (SPCC). I will deliver all donations to the Centre as soon as all the bottles are returned.

MASS FOR THOSE LIVING WITH CANCER – The next monthly Mass for Those Living with Cancer, at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, will be celebrated next Tuesday, June 18th at 7:00 pm. Anointing of the Sick will be offered.

EVENING PRAYER IN CARMEL CHAPEL (103 Burpee Avenue, Saint John) – Next gathering Wednesday, June 26th. Music starts at 6:00 p.m.; prayer ritual begins at 6:30 pm. PARKING: Both sides of Burpee Ave. and Rocmaura lot off Park Street. Weekday contact info: (506) 634-4970.

MAIL FORWARDING TO THE DIOCESAN OFFICE - The mail forwarding from Bayard Drive to the Villa will expire in June. If you have any business with the diocesan office, please make sure you use their new address: 115 Villa Madonna Road, Rothesay NB E2H 2X4.

FOLLOW UP FROM RECENTLY CONCLUDED WEBINAR SERIES TITLED "A Great Symphony of Prayer: The Our Father as a Programme of Life" delivered by Dr. Josephine Lombardi. This webinar series for the "Year of Prayer 2024" in anticipation of the Jubilee Year 2025 will be followed by another series in the fall. A registration link for the fall series will be shared, once it is available. Use this link to view the recently concluded webinars - English: cccb.ca/ourfather. The videos for the recently concluded French-language webinar series titled, "Une grande symphonie de prière: Le Notre Père comme programme de vie", will be shared once the packaged recordings are available.

SUMMERTIME FLOWERS SIGN-UP SHEET – Some of you know about this sign-up sheet. For those that do not, we attempt to co-ordinate summer flower gathers to decorate the altar from early July to Sept. 1st – total of only eight (was nine - someone has already put their name on the sheet) Sundays this year. This much needed “summertime break” is for the Arts and Environment Committee. There is also a similar break for those that compose our weekly prayers. Please consider signing up for at least one weekend. When in doubt, there are parishioners that will give you guidance. You only need to ask. 😊

TRINITY CHURCH, SAINT JOHN: Their “Summer Sounds 2024” fundraising program will run Monday evenings at 7:15 p.m. from June 10th to August 26th. Doors open at 7:00 p.m. at both Charlotte and Germain Street entrances. This weekly series will feature easy listening and classical selections performed by fine local musicians. A free will offering will be taken - half each to the performers and for the Chiming & Timing of the Steeple Bells. Here is the list of scheduled performers for the month of June. Check the bulletin board for more information:

June 17: Maritime Sea Chanteys - with 'Before the Mast'; and June 24: Andrew Clark - Balladeer / Guitarist.

Trinity Church’s congregation dates from 1783 and is known as “Saint John’s Loyalist Church”. It has a spiritual ambience and is a fine example of English gothic architecture. Acoustics are perfect for this music program.

NB MILITARY HISTORY MUSEUM – Looking for something to do this Summer? Until August 30th, the NB Military History Museum, Bldg. A-5, 119 Walnut Street, Gagetown, will be featuring a history of the Royal Canadian Army Chaplain Corps since the first World War. For more information call (506) 422-2000 ext. 1304 or email: nbmhm.mhmnbn@gmail.com. See poster on bulletin board.

MILESTONES: I heard through the grape vine that Stephanie and Terry Taylor are celebrating their 49th wedding anniversary, this week. Please join me in congratulating Stephanie and Terry!
